Key Policy Features

Retroactive cover to ensure you are protected

Our policy will provide retroactive cover ("tail cover") for any prior practice you have undertaken.

Protecting your reputation is paramount

With the rise of practitioner review and comparison sites, we understand the importance of your professional reputation. Therefore, we cover defamation arising out of social media and the cost of engaging a public relations consultant to help safeguard your reputation.

Don't let a statutory fine catch you off guard

Our policy can cover you for the defence costs and fines levied against you for certain breaches of consumer, environmental and workplace health and safety laws.

Public patients cover

We automatically cover public patient claims in your practice speciality where your hospital or area health service does not indemnify you.

Loss of income when attending court

We automatically cover your loss of earnings for time away from your practice while attending court or arbitration in relation to a claim.

Privacy risks

Our policy can cover fines for breaches of privacy laws as well as the cost of notifying regulators and patients if you have a privacy breach.

Tailored pricing to suit your lifestyle

No billing bands or mid-term increases

We do not put you in billing band categories or increase your premium mid-term if your gross billings are higher than anticipated.
